CURRENT ECONOMIC STATISTICS

UNEMPLOYMENT

In June 2018

- The unemployment rate was 3.9 percent nationally. The number of unemployed persons stands at 6.3 million.
- More than 1.4 million (22.7%) of the unemployed were classified as long term unemployed as they have been unemployed for more than 27 weeks.
- There were 1.5 million people who were marginally attached to the labor force, meaning these individuals were not in the labor force, wanted and were available to work, and had looked for a job sometime in the prior 12 months.

However, these people are not counted as “unemployed” because they had not searched for work in the four weeks preceding the survey. Of these 1.5 million people, 512,000 are categorized as “discouraged workers”, meaning they have quit looking for work because they do not believe jobs are available for them.

- There were 4.6 million people working part time who would prefer to be working full time.

NEW JERSEY UNEMPLOYMENT
